

House Passes New Military Construction Russia Is Charged With Holding U.S. Airmen

Two Crews Cited as Prisoners Thorough Check Is Asked of Reds

Moscow, July 17 (AP)—The United States has charged that the Soviet Union is holding American airmen from two—and possibly more—downed U. S. planes.

A note from the U. S. embassy to the Soviet foreign ministry called on the Soviet government to make a thorough investigation. It asked that the United States be informed of progress as soon as possible.

CITED specifically were the crews of a U. S. privateer that went down in the Baltic Sea area April 8, 1950, and a U. S. Air Force B-29 lost June 13, 1952, over the Sea of Japan or near the Kamchatka area of Soviet Siberia.

The B-29 carried 12 men and the privateer 10. The note said the United States had been informed and was "compelled to believe" that some of the crew members from the two planes are being held by the Soviets.

"IT MAY WELL be," the note went on, "that the Soviet government has in its custody members of other United States aircraft, particularly crew members of aircraft engaged on behalf of the United Nations command side of the military action in Korea since 1950."

The note explained that the U. S. government for some time has received information from persons freed from Soviet imprisonment that they had "conversed with, seen or heard reports" concerning American airmen "in actual detention in the Soviet Union."

The note continued: "THE REPORTS have now become so persistent and detailed, and so credible that, although the United States government is not able to identify by name these American nationals now detained by the Soviet government, it requests the Soviet government to inform the United States government in detail." ### Ringling to Play Garden, Other Arenas Next Year

Pittsburgh, July 17 (AP)—Roustabouts pulled down for the last time today the mammoth tent of the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus, ending an era in American entertainment that thrilled generations.

The first section of the long circus train left Pittsburgh en route to its winter quarters in Sarasota, Fla., at 12:55 a. m. EST. The other two sections followed at 6:47 and 6:57 a. m. EST.

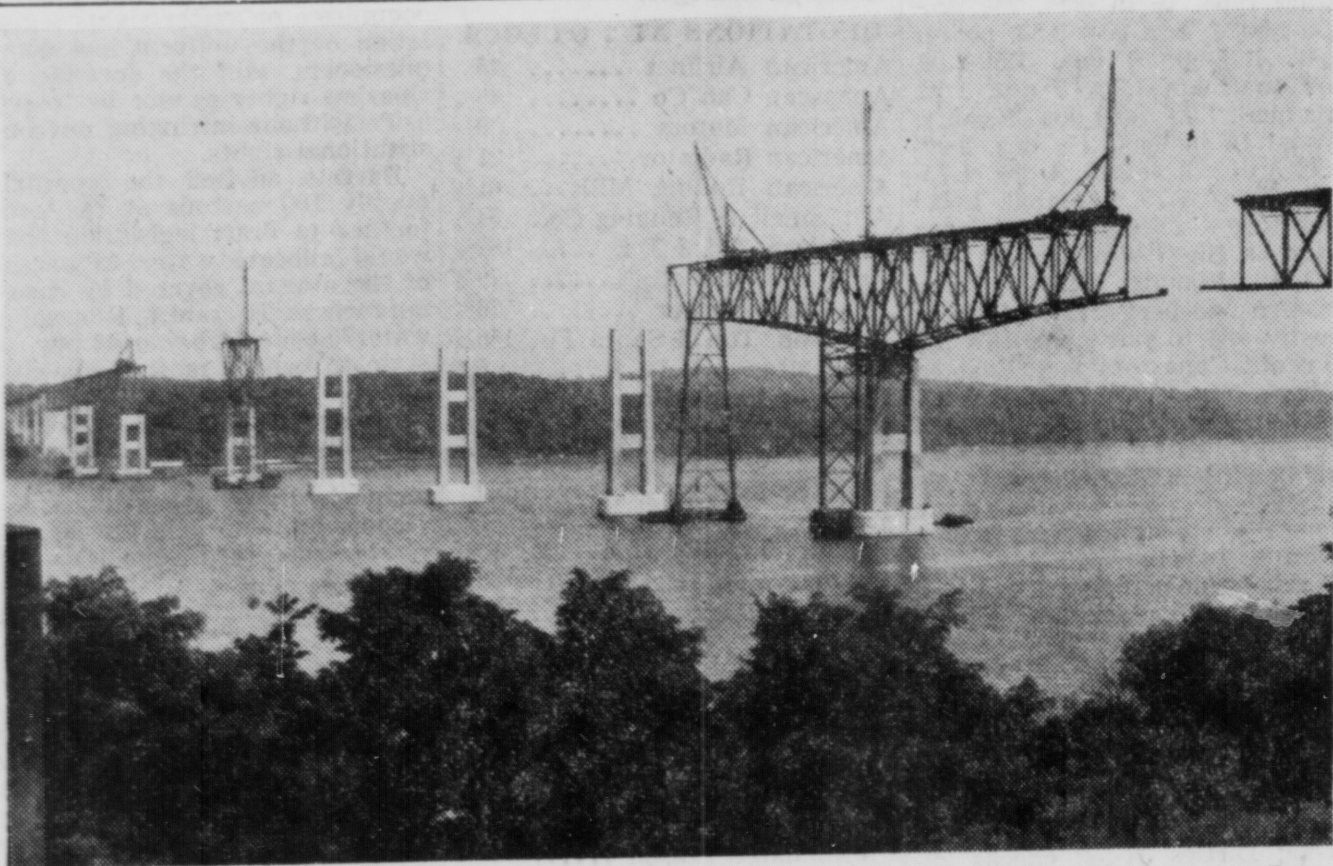

"The Greatest Show on Earth" closed its road tour in a blaze of glory last night at nearby Heidelberg. Every performer seemed to put a little extra into his act for the over-capacity crowd of some 10,000.

It was a night of glitter and spectacle, a fitting bow-out for the world's greatest circus. After the crowd melted away, weary performers and workers packed belongings and gear, and the circus headed for winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla., in its gaily colored railroad cars.

John Ringling North, board chairman and president of the circus, abruptly announced the closing of the 1956 season shortly before the afternoon show. "The tented circus as it now exists is, in my opinion, a thing of the past," North said. "We are considering plans for the future which may involve an almost completely mechanized controlled exhibition."

But he promised the 87th presentation of the circus will open as usual next year on April 3 at Madison Square Garden in New York and will play the 1957 season in other air-conditioned arenas all over the United States.

Gone will be the big top, the sideshows and the midway—where wide-eyed youngsters strolled with their parents and carried peanuts, cotton candy and bright-hued dolls and other trinkets. Labor troubles, bad weather, rising costs and other factors (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

BRIDGE TAKING FORM—Trusswork advances from both sides of the river on the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge, which now begins to indicate the form it will take before reaching the

State Water Demand Is Not Pressing Kingston

A gradual increase in the demand for water, both domestic and industrial, during the next 10 years is anticipated by the Kingston Water Department—an expansion which is not viewed with alarm, however.

In commenting on an Associated Press dispatch quoting State Sen. Wheeler Milroe as saying the demand for water in New York state in the next 10 years would exceed sharply the amount at present available.

Minkler Fined $75 on Charges After Collision

A Kingston man was fined a total of $75 Monday night by Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt of the town of Ulster on two charges arising out of a two-car collision on the Mountain road, Eddyville, on Saturday.

William Lowell Minkler, 23, of 19 Dunn street, was fined $50 on a charge of reckless driving and $25 for driving without a license. He pleaded guilty to both counts.

Mr. Minkler was arrested at 7:45 p. m. Saturday by Kingston state police after his 1955 sedan was in collision with a 1954 sedan operated by Delores Cavanaugh, 29, of Pittsfield, Mass.

Troopers reported that Mr. Minkler was traveling east in a reckless manner, crossed the middle of the road and side-swiped the Cavanaugh vehicle. No injuries were reported.

Highland Woman's Death Is Ruled Accidental by Coroner

The death of Mrs. Jesse Puccio, 58, Highland, last Friday afternoon in a collision between an ambulance and car on Route 44-55 east of the Highland traffic circle, has been ruled accidental by Coroner Francis J. McCordle.

Mr. McCordle, who investigated the circumstances of Mrs. Puccio's death with District Attorney Howard C. St. John and Highland state police, said death was due to a lacerated pericardium, hemothorax of the left side and fractured ribs on both sides.

A post-mortem was performed by Dr. Chester Golding, Dutchess county medical examiner.

Mrs. Puccio and her husband were being taken to Vassar Bros. Hospital, Poughkeepsie, in a hospital ambulance at the time of the collision with a car operated by Thomas J. Walsh, 46, of Auburn. They had been hurt earlier in a three-car collision on Route 9-W at Milton.

As the ambulance was proceeding to the hospital on a hill and curve, with siren sounding and the red lights on, the driver attempted to pass another vehicle. Troopers reported the vehicles were proceeding about 40 MPH. Walsh was also attempting to pass another vehicle when the collision occurred, it was reported.

Thumping No Way To Dislodge Objects

New York, July 17 (AP)—An osteopaths' convention heard a warning yesterday against back-thumping as a home treatment when a child has swallowed a foreign object.

Calmness was recommended by Dr. J. Ernest Leuzinger, of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, who presented a paper at the 60th annual convention of the American Osteopathic Assn.

Advising against back-thumping and by-the-heel shaking treatments for dislodging swallowed objects, he gave this prescription:

Pick up the child, place him gently on the lap and talk to him soothingly—if he is old enough to understand—about spitting up the object.

Leuzinger said that thumping or up-ending the child tends to lodge the foreign object more firmly. Most of the time, he said, the child will get rid of the object if left to his own devices.

He also advised against probing for the object with the fingers, which he said may lodge it more firmly and in the wrong place.

Ahavath Israel Anniversary Set For August 19th

Elaborate plans have been announced to help celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of Congregation Ahavath Israel on Sunday night, August 19, Larry Jacobs, congregation president, said today.

The golden jubilee dinner is scheduled for Sunday at Granite Orchard Hotel and Country Club in Accord.

Benjamin Schechter, past president of the congregation, will act as toastmaster and a prominent speaker from the Jewish Theological Seminary will address the group. Mr. Schechter, who is now serving as general chairman of the 1956 United Jewish Appeal, also serves as a commissioner of the Kingston Water Board and is president of the Myron J. Michael P-TA. He also is past president of the Kingston District Zionist Organization of America.

Also scheduled to speak is Herman G. Rafalowsky, who is chairman of the entire anniversary celebration program.

Poughkeepsie to Reconsider Dismissal of City Manager

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—The Poughkeepsie Common Council has agreed to reconsider its dismissal of City Manager Robert Quinn.

Quinn, fired three weeks ago, requested reconsideration at a public hearing held by the council last night. The council said it would announce its decision Monday.

Quinn told the council he was dismissed for refusing to play ball with "politicians."

Wide Area Deluged by Red Paper

Philadelphia, July 17 (AP)—A New York customs official testified today that better than 100,000 parcels of Communist propaganda a month are directed at the States of New York, Illinois, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Irving Fishman, collector of customs at the Port of New York, testified here before a House Sub Committee on Un-American Activities. Rep. Walter (D-Pa.), Rep. Velde (R-Ill.) and Rep. Scherer (R-Ohio) heard the testimony in connection with the committee's investigation of Communist propaganda being directed at this country.

UNDER QUESTIONING by Committee Counsel Richard Arens, Fishman said his agency's brief investigation disclosed that there is a flood of unlabeled Communist propaganda coming into the United States from abroad. He said the better than 100,000 figure was not near the total amount since the investigation by Customs and the Post-office Department was very brief.

Fishman said also that under the law, the post office was not allowed to open first class mail in which the great majority of propaganda is sent. Fishman's testimony reflected reports here last May that foreign born residents of Philadelphia were being (Continued on Page 5, Col. 3)

Local Stations To Be Off Air During CD Test

Both local radio stations will be part of a 15-minute "blackout" on Friday during national Civil Defense "Operation Alert 1956," it was learned today.

Officials at both Station WKNY in Kingston and Station WSKN, Mt. Marion, said they would be affected by the first daytime "Conelrad" drill affecting all broadcast stations.

WKNY-TV, which usually has a test pattern operating at the time of Friday's drill, 3:10 p. m. (EST), will be off the air completely during the 15-minute "blackout," officials said.

According to the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, FM and TV broadcast stations collectively will be off the air during that quarter hour and only AM stations holding Conelrad authorizations will function. The latter, the FCC said, will operate on the specified 640 or 1240 kilocycle frequencies for drill purposes.

The FCC said that approximately 1,250 standard broadcast radio stations would participate. The drill was authorized at the request of the Civil Defense Administration, which is providing special broadcast announcements and other programming of a civil defense nature for use of the stations engaging in the drill.

All broadcast stations, FCC said, have been requested to (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Co-op Witness Says Pool Plan Is Best

A spokesman for the Dairy-men's League Cooperative Association in Binghamton today predicted that dairymen would receive 13 cents a hundred-weight more for their milk if the New York Marketing Order were extended to unregulated areas upstate, according to the Associated Press.

Hearings started in the upstate area today, following sessions held last week in Poughkeepsie by the U. S. Agricultural Department, during which Charles F. Relyea, president of the Kingston Area Milk Producers Association, representing 68 dealers, voiced opposition to the extension proposal.

Mrs. Charles A. Ball, 39 St. James street, this city, said in Poughkeepsie, "As a housewife I want to register a vigorous veto against any experiment with our present method of producing and distributing milk."

She said the people of Ulster county would no benefit by an extension of the order and that sources in the milk industry had told her prices would go up if the order were introduced.

Her statements were endorsed and supported by the steering committee of the Upstate Milk dealers in Albany.

Mr. Relyea said the suggestion that upstate extension of the order for the New York milkshed would increase prices for farmers was "wishful thinking."

Harry I. Day, the Dairy-men's League Binghamton divisional representative, said today that the 13-cent increase for dairymen would be in the blend price, which is based on the prices paid for all classes of milk and is about 46.5 cents.

Mr. Day was the only witness at the morning hearing today (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

President's Two Veto Points Out Congress Will Get Supervision Power

Washington, July 17 (AP)—With unprecedented speed, the House today passed a $2,138,886,000 military construction bill stripped of provisions which drew a presidential veto yesterday.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

THE HOUSE ACTION was taken by unanimous consent with only about 100 members on the floor.

It came shortly after the armed services committee had approved a measure lacking two provisions objected to by the President.

These would have required the Defense Department to get approval of the Senate and House Armed Services committees before going ahead with contracts for Talos missile sites and for construction of government-insured housing for servicemen's families.

EXCEPT for eliminating these two provisions, the new bill was identical to the one vetoed. It authorizes construction of hundreds of projects at military bases in the United States and abroad.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee told the House the committee promptly would draft a bill giving Congress "some supervision" over the program.

The President objected that original measure was an invasion of the constitutional powers of the executive branch of government.

Vinson told the committee prior to the House action that he does not agree with President Eisenhower's contention that Congress breached "the fundamental constitutional principles of separation of power" when it passed the original bill.

EISENHOWER'S VETO said the features of the bill to which he objected "would destroy the clear lines of responsibility which the Constitution provides" and gives the committees "authority to nullify congressional authorization."

Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) said that if military authorization bills are to be passed in the future without provisions for a "second look" by Congress, "it is time to serve notice on the military that we will require far different procedure and presentations from them."

Kilday was backed up by Rep. Short of Missouri, ranking Republican committee member, and others. Kilday said that in future if proposals are made by the military no more specifically justified than those for the Talos missile sites, "we will have no alternative but to refuse to authorize the money."

REVIEWING the history of the vetoed bill, Robert Smart, committee counsel, indicated that the Talos controversy involved which type of missile under development is the best. The Senate took out provision for the Talos sites, he said, but House conferees insisted on restoring it "so that the services could move expeditiously if it were decided to push Talos." When this part of the bill was restored, the provision giving the committees a second look was put in.

Vinson said he would act on one Eisenhower suggestion and introduce separate legislation requiring the Defense Department (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

County Employment Is Up Over Seven - Year Period

Industrial employment increased 23.9 per cent in Ulster county from 1947 to 1954, according to the Empire State Chamber of Commerce.

This compares with an average state-wide gain during the same period of only 7.8 per cent. The compilation is based on the preliminary report of the manufacturing census of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

In releasing the report today, Executive Secretary Albert Kurt of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce pointed out that IBM had no employees here when the census was taken in 1954.

In 1947 Ulster county was credited with 7,412 manufactur-

Marine Corps Ordered To Show Training Poll

Parris Island, S. C., July 17 (AP)—The Marine Corps was ordered today to let the defense in the trial of S/Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon see the results of an opinion poll of 27,000 marines on how best to train fighting men.

McKeon is the 31-year-old former drill instructor who led six marines to their deaths by drowning in a tidal marshland last April 8.

The defense argued yesterday that the poll should be made available on the grounds that it would serve in some measure to explain McKeon's activities on that fatal night.

Heretofore, the marines through Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas have declined to let Defense Attorney Emile J. Berman of New York see the questionnaires on the grounds that they had no bearing on the case.

Navy Capt. Irving N. Klein, law officer at the court martial, directed the navy and the marines to make the questionnaires available. Klein said the trial "may be pertinent" to the trial of McKeon.

Maj. Charles B. Sevier of Jacksonville, Ill., prosecutor, told Klein he already had arranged with headquarters of the Marine Corps at Washington to let representatives of the defense inspect the files and also see the Marines' analysis of the poll.

Sevier also said that yesterday's request for the names of all Marines discharged from Parris Island since Jan. 1 would likewise be made available to the defense.

McKeon is charged specifically with involuntary manslaughter, oppression of recruits and drinking on duty.

Klein denied today a motion made by the defense to sever the drinking charges from the more serious accusations. Berman then moved to dismiss one of the drinking charges, that is, drinking in the presence of a recruit.

Under the code of military justice, Berman said, there is no such offense. He said the too-broad application of that charge is "repugnant to American standards of justice and fair play," encouraging "government by caprice instead of government by law."

Klein denied Berman's second motion to dismiss one of the drinking charges.

The charges against McKeon grew out of a fatal forced march on the night of April 8. He led 74 recruits, only five weeks in the marines, into a tide-swept flat "to teach them discipline." Only 68 returned alive.

So far the trial has been tied up with legal wrangling. McKeon has yet to enter a plea of guilt (Continued on Page 5, Col. 3)

Killinders Carry Local Best Wishes to England

The Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Killinder of Kingston and Ulster Park have received a quite hospitable reception in the city of Stockport, England, where they are now vacationing.

The Rev. Mr. Killinder, formerly pastor of Trinity Methodist Church and the Flatbush Reformed Church before his retirement, left England for America 50 years ago.

He and Mrs. Killinder are staying with Mr. and Mrs. E. Pearson of 24 Clumber road, Gorton, Manchester, England.

The Killinders recently visited Stockport, bringing greetings to Mayor C. H. P. Cooper from Kingston.

According to accounts in the Stockport newspapers, the Rev. Mr. Killinder was bearer of a letter from Mayor Frederick H. Stang of Kingston to Mayor Cooper of Stockport in which the Rev. Mr. Killinder was introduced as a man who had taken "an active part in the civic and fraternal life of the city." He was chaplain of the Masonic Fraternity for more than 12 years.

Mayor Cooper was quoted in the Stockport press as saying that the Rev. Mr. Killinder was an Englishman who has certainly "made good" in America.

$300,000 Is Awarded In Crash at Liberty

New York, July 17 (AP)—Approximately $300,000 was awarded in Supreme Court Monday to victims of a collision between a trailer truck and a passenger automobile on a rain-swept upstate highway three years ago.

Interest is expected to add $40,000 to the amount.

The estates of three men who died in the crash July 17, 1953, near Liberty, N. Y., were awarded $258,391, with the remainder going to three persons who were injured.

The truck is owned by Queens Farms Dairy, Inc.

Awards went to the estates of David Rosenberg, 42, Brooklyn tailor, survived by a widow and two children, $127,579; Max Karpel, 46, Manhattan, survived by a widow and two children, $101,031, and Max Gritz, 62, Manhattan tailor, survived by a widow, $29,781.

The injured awarded damages were Louis Rothman, 43, Manhattan, $17,500; Simon Schwartzberg, 50, Manhattan, $17,500, and Marilyn Gritz, 25, Manhattan, $3,500.

Hoover to Speak At GOP Parley

San Francisco, July 17 (AP)—Ex-President Herbert Hoover, who will be 82 Aug. 10, will address the Republican National Convention here Aug. 21 at President Eisenhower's personal invitation, party officials announced here.

Hoover, now staying at Bohemian Grove in Sonoma county, gave four years ago at Chicago what he called his "valedictory" address to a GOP convention. Since then he has resumed his activity as chairman of the Hoover commission on streamlining the Federal government.

32 Dead in Japan During Heavy Rains

Tokyo, July 17 (AP)—Floods fed by torrential summer rains spread death and destruction over western Japan today. Police said 32 persons were known dead, 19 missing and presumed dead, and 23 seriously injured.

More than 100 homes were washed away, more than 18,000 flooded, and 22,000 acres of crops were destroyed.

Dikes crumbled in at least 177 places. Roads were cut at 208 points, and 196 bridges were washed out.

U. S. army helicopters flew 1,000 pounds of food to the hard-hit Wajima district, on the Noto peninsula of the Japan sea coast.

Sobeloff Can Serve

Washington, July 17 (AP)—Solicitor General Simon E. Sobeloff at last can serve on the court to which he was appointed a year ago. Overriding strong southern opposition, the Senate last night voted 64-19 to confirm President Eisenhower's nomination of Sobeloff to be a judge of the U. S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Sobeloff's nomination was the most hotly disputed of any submitted by Eisenhower this session. Southern senators had blocked the appointment for more than a year; contending Sobeloff is "predudiced" against the South on the school segregation issue. Sobeloff has been solicitor general in the Justice Department since late in 1954. He had no part in litigation that led to the Supreme Court's 1954 decision holding segregation of Negro and white public school children unconstitutional but later he presented the department's views on how the decision should be applied.

Trial Continues

Rochester, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—The trial of two men charged with belonging to a conspiracy which allegedly swindled a Rochester industrialist of $423,771 entered its second day in U. S. District Court today. The trial of Harold P. Odom, 60, of Valley Stream, L. I., and George V. Arlen, 56, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., opened yesterday before a jury of six men and six women. They are charged with swindling Augustine J. Cunningham, 77, president of James Cunningham & Son Co., makers of electronic equipment.

Litter Campaign

Albany, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—A campaign to keep litter off the New York State Thruway opened today. Paper bags are being offered to motorists at many of the gasoline stations and refreshment areas along the 424 miles of the superhighway. The idea is for motorists to put refuse in the bags and dispose of them off the thruway. An Amsterdam paper products company is donating the bags.

Retired Dean Dies

Chicago, July 17 (AP)—Harry D. Taft, 70, retired dean of the DePaul University law school, died yesterday. He was a law instructor from 1915 until 1950 when he became dean. He retired in 1950. Taft was a native of Manningville, N. Y.

Briefly Told

Selkirk, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—New York Central Railroad freight operations here were held up several hours yesterday after five cars of an 80-car freight train were derailed.

The train was leaving the Selkirk yards when the cars went off the tracks. There was no immediate report of what caused the derailment.

Schenectady, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—Life-size white footprints on sidewalks in downtown Schenectady lead straight to the county board of elections office.

Members of the League of Women Voters, aided by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, painted the prints to call attention to central registration week for voters.

Under the permanent personal registration system recently adopted by Schenectady county, all residents must register in person this year.

Albany, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—The State Agriculture Department says that it will resume in a few days its anti-brucellosis program.

The department said yesterday that it expected federal funds to help combat the disease, which causes abortions in cows.

The department had earlier announced that state funds for the work were exhausted.

Search Continues

Lake Placid, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—A search for Jonathan Chafetz, 7, of Columbus, Ohio, was in its third day today. Lt.

John Dwyer of the state police said last night he still held a "slim hope" the boy was still alive, lost in the woods. Jonathan, who had been vacationing with his family, disappeared Sunday morning. His father Sidney, an art instructor of Ohio State University, offered a $500 reward for the finding of the boy alive.

Cadillac

His Last Switch in Motor Cars!

We have no way of knowing, of course, how many different makes of motor cars this gentleman has owned through the years. But we'd wager that he has changed his preference a great many times in his years on the highway.

And we're also willing to bet that he has now made his last switch in motor cars!

For this time it's a Cadillac! And it is historically true that once a motorist makes the move to the "car of cars", he is usually a Cadillac owner for life.

What are the reasons for this great devotion and loyalty? Well, let us count them off.

First of all, there are the things which everyone recognizes in Cadillac. There is its great beauty... its matchless luxury... and the unquestioned respect which the car commands the world over.

Then there are those qualities with which anyone who has ever driven a Cadillac is familiar. There is its marvelous comfort and ease of handling... its magnificent power and performance... and its wonderful balance and agility.

And, finally, there are those things which only Cadillac owners themselves can fully appreciate. There is the car's remarkable economy of operation and upkeep—its incredible longevity—and its marvelous resale value.

Incidentally we have recently made two very important additions to this list of things you get when you make your decision for Cadillac.

We're talking about prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance!

Better come in while the circumstances are so favorable—and make your last switch in motor cars!

We'll be delighted to see you at any time.

RIFT IN THE PARTY
Tennessee Republicans like President Eisenhower, but dislike his policies. This impression is given by the platform adopted lately by the state convention. It calls for his renomination, and then makes several demands to which he is strongly opposed. The Tennessee GOP would limit the power of Congress to impose income, inheritance and gift taxes. The President has already strongly opposed this idea, which would make government finance almost impossible. They praise the McCarran-Walter immigration act, which President Eisenhower wants to modify. They oppose foreign aid, which the President thinks a valuable form of national defense. They wish to re-examine our membership in the United Nations, thus running counter to a strong administration policy. They favor the Bricker constitutional amendment to limit the presidential treaty-making power. The President has time and again opposed this, and by his personal opposition has succeeded so far in beating it off. In view of this antagonism toward fundamental administration policies, the Tennessee Republicans should logically call for a new man to head the ticket. However, politicians are not often logical. Presumably they feel Eisenhower to be the strongest party candidate and hope that after election he will be unable to do what he wants.

LAWMAKING BOTTLENECK
As each session of Congress ends there is always important legislation which remains unpassed. Bills which were written optimistically at the start of the session are lost in the welter of things that must be done before adjournment. In a government as complicated as ours, all legislation obviously cannot be done at any session. Some will always have to be postponed. But with more efficient scheduling of legislation for consideration each session could get more done, and the most important bills would at least receive the attention they deserve. Another unfortunate thing about bills that can't be considered until the waning days of a session is that they are sometimes not debated as thoroughly; details are not given the careful attention they receive when there is more time. Finding ways to avoid the legislative bottleneck will not be easy. But that should not prevent Congress from trying to find ways. Certainly a system can be devised to see that at least the really vital legislation will receive consideration earlier in the session.

BRITISH CRIME WAVE
For years British law and order, and the swift punishment of criminals, have been world famous. It is therefore astonishing to read that gang warfare, such as some American cities have known only two well, has burst out in London. The battles of race track gangsters were recently aired in the courts. Attacks by thugs wielding razors and knives are reported often in the newspapers. Organized vice also seems to be breaking loose from restraint. Now three Laborite members of Parliament have formally asked Major Gwilym Lloyd George what he plans to do about it. Lloyd George is home secretary, and many of his duties concern law and order. Why this crime wave in a well-policed country with a deeply ingrained tradition of obedience to law? The cause would be even more interesting than the outbursts of gangsterism themselves. Native dances to induce rain were primitive and not nearly as effective as modern methods. All we have to do today is wash the car.

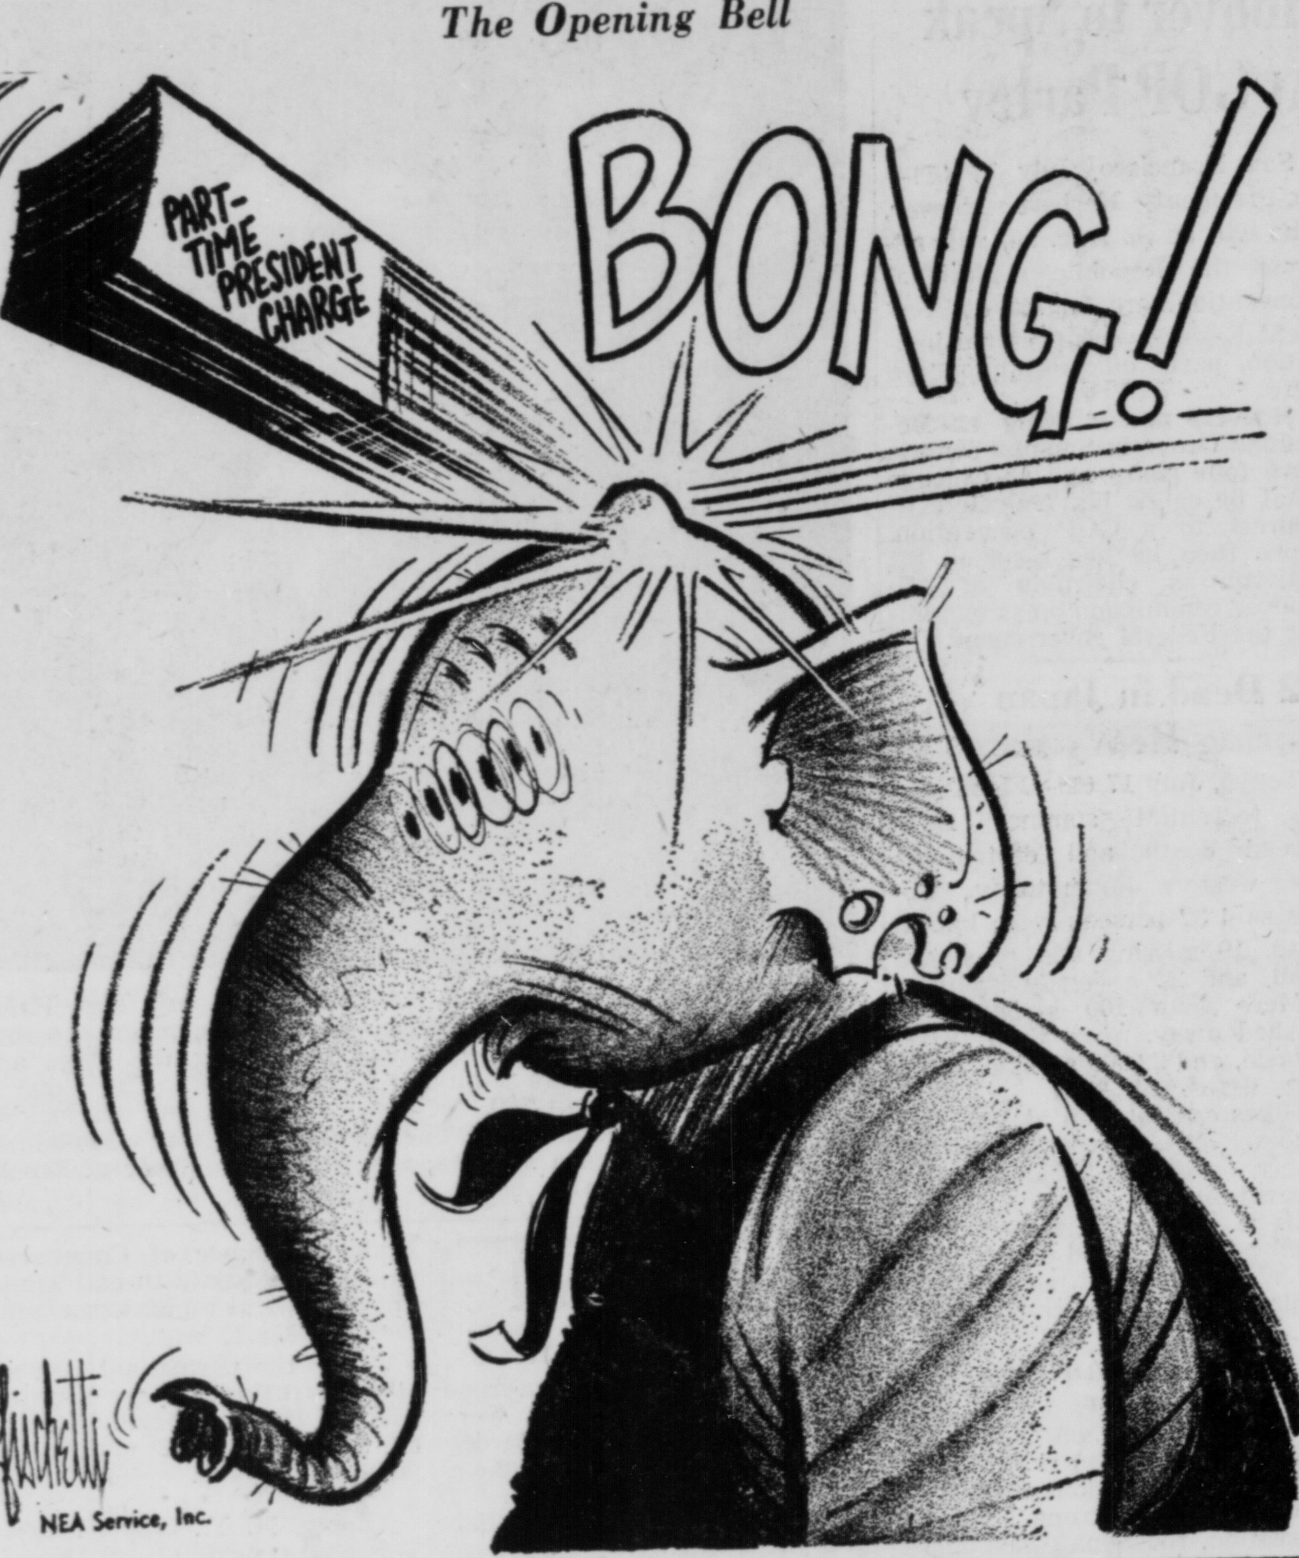

It may seem warm now—but with the political campaign swinging into full gear it promises to be even hotter this fall. A budget expert says you should plan a shopping tour before you go. It's cheaper yet just to stay home and cut the grass.

DO WE NEED KNOWLEDGE?
J. Sinclair Armstrong, Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, popularly called SEC and existing primarily to protect the American people from being inveigled into investing their savings in fraudulent stocks and bonds, was testifying before the Senate Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. Armstrong said that about $300,000,000 (billions) of securities were listed on American exchanges. There are, of course, unlisted securities which are sold to Americans but which are not on the exchanges. The 1,200 large unlisted companies have an outstanding value of about $36,000,000,000. This represents undoubtedly the greatest investment of private capital in the world and explains why American markets are so attractive. As regards foreign ownership of these securities, Chairman Armstrong said that SEC had no information. Senator Olin Johnston asked Armstrong if he knew that about $26,000,000,000 of American securities were owned in Europe. The head of SEC replied: "We do not have any data on that subject at the present time. We have been considering that subject at the present time. We have been considering that subject, Senator Johnston, because of our concern in administering Section 14 of the Securities and Exchange Act, which is the proxy-soliciting section of the act, that gives us the right to prescribe rules and regulations in regard to the solicitation of proxy securities, which requires the divulging of the security holders to the persons purchasing their securities through proxies. "There has been a great deal of concern in our Commission because we have run into a number of situations where it has appeared to us that it would be impossible to obtain information because the holdings were in the name of foreign interests. Then he added: "We are extremely concerned about it at the present time because it appears that there may be securities coming into this country from Canada and Switzerland which would be required to be registered under the Securities Act, and they are apparently being traded in the securities markets of this country without registration. "We are attempting in a number of cases through our investigative work, particularly in our New York Regional Office, to determine to what extent these securities may have been illegally sold in this country. The question then arises as to what is meant by securities illegally sold in this country. Obviously, if any are sold on American exchanges, whatever their origin, they should be registered with SEC. But if American securities are bought abroad by "hot money," the ownership of which is unknown, what is illegal about it? So far as I have been able to discover, nothing. Senator Johnston was concerned that some of this ownership might be held in Iron Curtain countries. He said: "I believe you will agree with me when it comes to the Switzerland bank. They have a law in Switzerland which will not permit them to uncover, so to speak, and tell who is putting money in the bank and just from what source it is coming, is that not true? Chairman Armstrong replied: "That to the best of my knowledge is true, and we have had similar difficulties with Canada. To give you an indication of our concern, we have recently promulgated for public comment under the Administrative Procedures Act—a new rule in regard to registered broker-dealers—that is, broker-dealers registered with us under the Securities and Exchange Act—and we've promulgated this because we cannot send our people up into Canada to look at their books. "We've promulgated a rule that if they become registered with us, or if they desire to continue their registration with us, they will undertake to make their books available and keep duplicate books in the United States, so that we can have access to their books and records, so that we would have information of the kind we are talking about. "We hope to have that after we have had an opportunity to get the opinions of the public and the opinions of Congressional Committees. It will be interesting to find how this works out. Canada has recently been complaining about American investments in that country. What about Canadian investments in the United States? Or, for that matter, pseudo-Canadian investments? It might even be advantageous for Americans to make their investments through wholly-owned Canadian or other nationality companies and thus make tax savings. Is this illegal? MORE ABOUT ST. CLOUD
I have devoted the last two articles to a study of the retirement community of St. Cloud, Fla., to which so many older persons have retired. It is apparent that St. Cloud is a unique town where, in contrast to the general situation in the United States and Canada, the role of older people in this town is one of real strength and fair prestige. The opportunity for social relationships with others is furnished in many ways. Aside from such organizations as the state clubs, shuffleboard club and the churches, which are all strongly attended, here are what may be termed "floating" relationships in which the setting or occasion was constant but the personnel was not. Examples were the post office at midtime, shopping trips, and the famed green benches seen also in other Florida communities. These informal relationships appeared to be important because of their flexibility, lack of regulations, low cost, and the support and social recognition they afforded. For about half the older people, such relationships filled out those stemming from the formal organizations mentioned above and for the remainder, who belonged to no organizations, informal relationships provided acceptable social outlets. To a great extent, St. Cloud has become adapted to its high proportion of older people. At the same time time resentment of their presence and influence was found especially among the youth who tended to move away. The young people found themselves with few recreational facilities and tended to seek their pleasure outside St. Cloud and to leave when they were ready to work or to establish homes. This exodus of youth contributed to the community's slow population growth. Older people found that St. Cloud held most of what they needed in the way of recreation and few journeyed beyond the city limits. That St. Cloud suited its older people is apparent. In interviews with over 245, the overwhelming majority of those interviewed said they liked the community and wanted to spend the rest of their lives there. The primary reason given was "people" with comments on the town's friendliness. The second reason was "climate" with 92 per cent stating that the climate agreed with them better than that of their home state or province. The city's "quietness" was a third reason and its "water" was a fourth. The first and third reasons were those most given by the young people for their dissatisfaction. I have gone into some detail about this novel community of St. Cloud because it seems to be an emerging type of community and the pattern of life that has evolved there may be a sample of retirement communities of the future. There, older people find and keep social climate which makes them feel adequate, useful and secure.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

NEA Washington Correspondent
Washington (NEA)—Republican congressmen naturally don't like to criticize President Eisenhower or anything he does, on the record. But privately, many of them are now saying they wish he wouldn't go to that Panama meeting of the heads of the American Republics, on July 21. The original conference, commemorating the 130th anniversary of the first Inter-American conference called by Simon Bolivar, was set for June 24. It had to be postponed because of the President's illness. But Asst. Secy. of State for Inter-American Affairs, Henry F. Holland and brother Milton Eisenhower, whom the President had sent on a good-will mission had sent on a good-will mission around South America, felt that around South America, felt that the good neighbor presidents shouldn't be disappointed again. This was largely the factor that resulted in the decision to postpone indefinitely President Eisenhower's scheduled two-day conference with Prime Minister Nehru of India. Now it is being argued that if at the last minute it is decided the President can't go to Panama, the Latinos may justifiably feel worse let down than they were before. "ROLL CALL," the Capitol Hill fortnightly tabloid newspaper which has just celebrated its first year of successful publication, reports that among congressmen there are going to be some new types of campaign jokes, anyway. Here are a few of its samples: "When congressmen talk about bills now, you don't know whether they mean legislative or doctors." "There was a time when politicians tried to feel the pulse of the nation, but now that situation is reversed. "Today congressmen watch their pills as much as their polls. "When one congressman was recently told by the House physician that his blood count was too high, he demanded a recount just out of force of habit. "Political hatchet men are now said to be using scalpels. "If Hoosier Vice-President Tom Marshall were alive today, he would revise his famous remark to: 'What this country needs today is a good five-cent scar.' A CONSIDERABLE amount of deep-dish political expertise is being indulged in these days, based on a survey of the Catholic vote influence in presidential election years. There's some mystery about the origin of this poll—who made it and who paid for it and what for. A few people who have seen it say it was privately made for unnamed congressmen. The net effect of the survey, however, is to show that if the Democrats were to nominate a Catholic for vice president—like young Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, for instance—it "might" influence enough Catholics to switch from Republican to Democratic votes and so throw the election. Investigation reveals that the poll was conducted on a scientific sampling method. Actually, only 1,000 Catholic voters were polled. There are over 33 million Roman Catholics in the U. S. today. Prominent Catholic spokesmen who are themselves in the dark about the origin of this poll say the sampling wasn't big enough to prove a thing. As one of them remarked, but not for attribution, "Any time you poll 1,000 Irishmen about any subject

Four Explanations Revealed On Setback of School Bill

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington, July 17 — Who killed the school bill with its billions of Federal money for education? That's still an unanswered question on Capitol Hill, where it may become known as the "mess of 1956." It's too bad the "right to know" doctrine—espoused by the House committee which is seeking to rid official Washington of its tendency to suppress news—doesn't extend to the behind-the-scenes maneuvers of party leaders in Congress who pull the strings. FOR THE FULL story of what happened ought to be told. Four explanations are being offered. One is that the segregationists of the South killed the bill. The other is that the integrationists of the North did it. Another is that those who didn't want any Federal interference in the financing of the schools were influential in the result and that they were alarmed because of recent Supreme Court decisions whittling down states' rights and increasing Federal authority. But Sen. Humphrey, D. of Minnesota, has a simple explanation. He blamed it all on "President Eisenhower's health or recuperation or concern over personal political problems" which are supposed to have prevented him from "exerting some personal influence and leadership." Mr. Eisenhower had already gone a long way in trying to get the bill passed. He had said once before that anything like the Powell amendment, denying Federal aid to schools in Southern states which do not adopt integration, shouldn't be tacked on to the bill. This was a daring expression on his part—a concession to expediency over and above principle. But what did happen? Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D. N. Y., and one of the Negro leaders of the country, offered his amendment. It was a Republican Congressmen from districts where there are many Negro voters couldn't dodge. No amount of persuasion from Mr. Eisenhower could keep them from voting for the Powell amendment. As for the Southern Congressmen, they abstained from voting so as to make sure the Powell amendment supporters would have a majority. They wanted the final measure to be unpalatable on every side. THE TRUTH is there are four parties in Congress today. There hasn't been a two-party system for two decades, and recent cisions of the Supreme Court curtailing states' rights mean that the four-party bloc system will remain for many more years to come. A significant aftermath of the school bill controversy is the discovery by Southern Democrats of how near they came to being tricked by the argument that, if the measure were passed without the Powell amendment, it should have no objection to it. For the fact is that Federal funds could be withheld even without the Powell amendment or its counterpart. The Administration has a legal opinion from the Department of Justice which is being used every day by the President's interracial commission: It claims the right of the Federal government at any time to cancel any contract with any agency, public or private, which permits discrimination in employment on the basis of "race or creed or color or national origin." THE TEXT of this important opinion has never been disclosed, though presumably the public has a right to know the exact contents of such an important document that supports an executive order. It's the knowledge that a threat exists to use Federal authority—even in the absence of a Powell amendment—to withhold funds from schools in the South which may prevent any school bill from ever being passed. For a specific stipulation in the law declaring that nothing in this or in any other law gives the Federal government the right to withhold funds except for the reasons given in the measure itself. What is surprising about the whole controversy is the assumption made by "Liberals" that those who voted for the Powell amendment should be reprimanded by President Eisenhower for voting their convictions. They are being upbraided for expressing themselves conscientiously. Because they are mostly Republicans, Mr. Eisenhower is being held responsible for their votes. ONE WONDER who is responsible for what the Southern Democrats did and for the votes of those Democrats who don't want Federal interference in schools on any score. The theory that the Presidency is a sort of benevolent dictatorship and that the Congress must become a "rubber stamp" has lately become a popular doctrine with many of the so-called "Liberals." Manpower May Be Cut While Military Potential Jumps

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
Washington, July 17 (AP)—Unless the United States and Russia reach agreement on disarmament—and there's no sign of it—both will be cutting their armed forces while increasing their ability to blow each other off the map. Both sides are having an effect on each other by their insistence on their peaceful intentions although Secretary of State Dulles continues to follow in public a tough anti-Soviet line of "don't hand me that stuff." LAST SPRING Premier Bulganin announced Russia would cut its military spending and its armed forces by 1,200,000 men. He called on the United States to do the same. Dulles, speaking for the administration, rejected such a course on the grounds that it would not be in the United States' interest. At the same time he tried to belittle the Russian manpower cut. But now, a month later, the New York Times reports Admiral Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, has proposed that American armed forces be reduced by 800,000 men by 1960. Radford has not denied the story, though he said no decision has been reached. He did say in part: "IT IS POSSIBLE that manpower requirements for the future security of the United States can ultimately be lowered because of the introductions of new weapons. It's a pretty good bet he wouldn't be thinking of cutting American ground forces—a big cut would hit the army hardest—if he feared the Russians were either going to increase their military manpower or start a war any time soon. Dulles, who in June sought to brush off a cut in Russian military manpower, told Congress in early July the chance of Russia's starting a war are less now than they were a year ago. Meanwhile both sides—developing nuclear weapons, long range planes to deliver them, and in time perhaps intercontinental missiles—will recognize the ability of each to destroy the other in a holocaust if either starts a war. BUT THERE ARE Northern Republicans—about sixty-five of them—who don't believe in Federal control of education and they, too, voted for the Powell amendment because they knew it would help kill the bill. On final passage, they joined with the Southern Democrats to make a majority against the entire bill. Also important was the action of Northern Democrats who helped to defeat amendments proposed by Republicans, allocating the funds on the basis of the needs of the states. This principle had previously been endorsed, but the Democrats repudiated it. The final bill, therefore, was unsatisfactory to Northern Republicans who favored Federal aid and Southern Democrats who didn't, and thus was readily deflected. It is a bit bewildering to see some of the so-called "Liberals" ignoring what the Southern Democrats did in helping the Powell amendments to pass or what the Northern Democrats did in defeating the Republican amendments. The bill is characterized as a case of bad executive leadership. BOTH WILL USE this power as a discouragement against the other. But American reliance on nuclear of a big war doesn't answer this question: If the United States doesn't have a good-sized ground force, how can it stop small wars? It could use airpower and atomic weapons. But would that stop a small war or start a big one? Use of atomic weapons by this country, even in a small war, might bring retaliation by Russia on a larger scale. Where would that end? There is another question: If the United States reduces its armed forces so much that it has to withdraw troops from overseas, will it be able to retain the trust and loyalty of its allies or must it retreat into a new isolation? RADFORD recognized that problem, for he said: "The United States has military obligations with the security of the free world which it will not unilaterally change." That American armed forces will be reduced in size—while the main reliance is put on the air force and nuclear weapons—seems certain. It won't be done without a lot of examination in Congress. And the reduction may not reach the size the New York Times says Radford has in mind. But Russia can bring a lot of world pressure on the United States to cut its forces by reducing its own further. It may do that. Costly Bridge York, Pa. (AP)—The state highways department plans to build a $200,000 bridge to carry the York-Baltimore expressway over a railroad track at nearby Stewartstown. The cost of the bridge would be more than five times the dollar volume of the Stewartstown Railroad's annual business and nearly three times the par value of its outstanding train a day. ### Pressmen Have Fund

Seattle, July 17 (AP)—First contracts under the pressmen's retirement fund covering 1,500 employees of newspapers and printing firms in Seattle and California were signed here yesterday. The fund is based on employer contributions of $3.75 a week. The contracts cover newspapers and printing firms in the Seattle, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Stockton and Sacramento areas. The fund sets no compulsory retirement but pressmen may become eligible at 60. The normal retirement age is 65. The fund also provides disability retirement benefits and credits of up to 20 years for past service. Under another provision pressmen may transfer from employer to employer without forfeiting credits.

follow the dinner on August 19.

CONGREGATION Avavath Israel, which has grown to a membership of 175 families, was founded in 1906 by a small group of about 14 families. During its early years, meetings and services were held at various member homes until its permanent synagogue was constructed on the corner of Wurts and Spring streets.

The congregation has progressed in years to be of service not only to its own members but to the community at large.

Proceeds from the annual Thanksgiving Eve bazaar have gone to numerous local charities in the area.

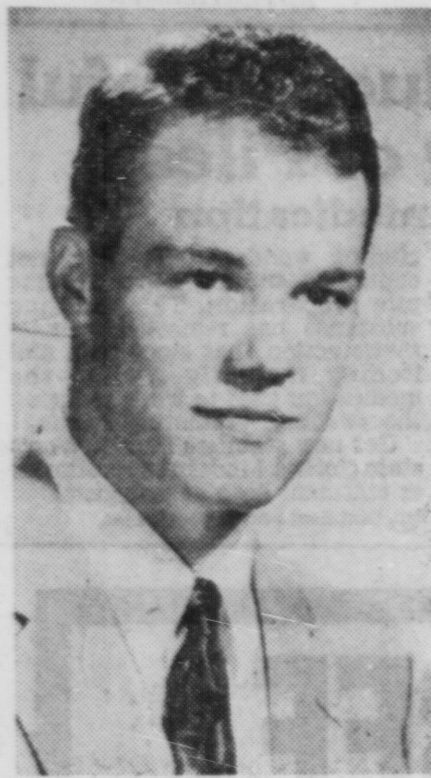

ASSISTING Chairman Rafalowsky with plans for the golden jubilee program are Aaron Adin, treasurer, Ephraim Propp, past president and Alex Woolf, past president, who is historian for the 50th anniversary.

Members of the congregation and their friends are invited to the program. Early reservations for the dinner are requested.

Elder Hutchinson who will work with Elder John E. Kagie replaces Elder Wesley J. Reed, transferred to Johnson City.

Elder Hutchinson, from Salt Lake City, Utah has spent two years at the University of Utah majoring in accounting. He is here as part of the missionary system of the Mormon LDS Church which consists of over 10,000 missionaries who are all self-supporting. Elder Hutchinson has previously spent nine months in Troy.

Elder Kagie has been in Kingston since last December and was previously in Poughkeepsie and Rochester. At home Elder Kagie was a truck driver. Elders Kagie and Hutchinson are residing at 180 Albany avenue. Services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints are held each Sunday at 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. in the YMCA building, Broadway and Pine Grove avenue.

At the present time the Eastern States Mission has 10 church buildings under construction, eight more are planned, including the Kingston Chapel.

Pity The Taxpayer

Roanoke, Va. (AP)—A 9-year-old boy committed to the Roanoke Juvenile Detention Home couldn't understand why he was given two bed sheets. He regarded one as acceptable, two as extravagant. "Who pays for this?" he wanted to know. "The taxpayers," he was told. "A top sheet is a waste of the taxpayers' money," the youth insisted.

Which card should West lead in today's hand? The fate of the contract hangs in the balance.

When Ralph Cash, of Phoenix, Ariz., held the West cards in the recent Los Angeles tournament, he shrewdly led the queen of spades. South could win a trick with the king of spades but could not make game without the hearts. As soon as South led hearts, West took the ace of hearts and the rest of the spades to defeat the contract.

If West had opened a lower spade, dummy would have won the first trick with the jack. South could go after the hearts with the king of spades still in his hand as a stopper. He would be sure to win at least 10 tricks.

How does West know whether to lead a high or low spade in this situation? West's lead doesn't matter if South has both the king and jack of spades. South will win the trick as cheaply as possible, and will still have a second stopper unless East can gain lead. (If West were sure that his partner could not gain the lead, he would open the ace of spades and would know how to continue the suit after seeing dummy.)

West knows from the bidding that South has the king of spades. His opening lead will make a difference if dummy has the jack. West wants to lead a low spade if dummy has three spades headed by the jack; but West wants to lead the queen of spades if dummy has the singleton or doubleton jack of spades. The ability to make the right choice in this situation depends on a knowledge of the enemy's bidding habits. To use that knowledge, however, you must be familiar with the problem and therefore ready to make the right move.

Socialist planners do a lot of shouting about what "the people" want. They say that "the people" want government in the electric power business. Fact is, these planners know darned well that "the people" don't want any such thing. These same planners have spoken out strongly in opposition to letting "the people" vote on this issue. They are afraid of your vote!

P.S. Just last month the citizens of Ogdensburg, upstate from here, voted down a proposal that the city government go into the electric power business. They voted 2,694 to 1,730 in favor of being served by a tax-paying electric utility company.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

The following from the Kingston Weekly Freeman of Thursday, June 8, 1899 which shows how fires start sometimes. "Between 2 and 3 o'clock Monday afternoon the barn on the Lowther farm, just below the Wells Myer railroad crossing in the town of Saugerties, caught fire from the sparks of a locomotive drawing a south-bound freight train.

The farm was rented by Asa Wolven who lives on the premises. Mrs. Wolven was drawing water in the yard at the time and saw the sparks from the locomotive carried by a strong south wind, alight on the roof of the barn, which set fire to the shingles and the whole structure was soon in a blaze. She was alone and had no one to help her, but she went to work in rescuing the horse and one or two wagons when she was driven away by the fierce fire.

Some farm animals perished although she tried her best to save them. Also lost was a large quantity of hay, straw and grain besides a number of farming implements."

In the above paper there is also a business notice reading as follows: "Sold out to Thing & Co.—Connelly & Shafer of Eddyville have sold their entire boot and shoe stock to S. B. Thing & Co., about 500 pairs in all, at 50 cents on the dollar. Big sale at Thing's Shoe Store."

Those were the days when Kingston Point Park was in full swing, for one item reads: "Jerome Williams' band will commence the season on June 24, afternoon and evening. Mr. Williams expects to furnish music that will be a pleasant surprise to the patrons of the park."

As I remember, in my time in the late 1920's—Mueller's orchestra played there, the visitors to the park appreciated it so, that they used to applaud after an appealing number and he would take a modest bow. Folks would stand around and on the bridge so they could get closer to the music stand on the water. They played light classic and popular waltzes, all very pleasant relaxing tunes. Folks had time in those days to relax and enjoy such music.

I notice another item, which may interest those in charge of the Bathing Beach this year. The following item from the same June 15, 1899 paper: "The Kingston City Railroad Co. has engaged the 'Banda Rossa' for afternoon and evening concerts on July 18. The park will be closed to the public on that day, and a charge of 10 cents will be made for admission."

That was a special band and perhaps written up elsewhere in the newspaper so that they were able to get a crowd. It is said, that back in my time, when the big Dayline boats used to dock there, and especially when an excursion was run to the Point some 6,000 persons were at Kingston Point Park at one time.

I remember, Sundays when the summer-trolley cars would take us there. That alone was a thrill as they made the turn to the 'flats' which is the 'home-stretch' to the Point. We would get so excited we could hardly sit, for we all wanted to be the first to jump off the trolley. Then as the trolley entered the park, the sound of the Merry-Go-Round music, and the band and all the people in all their Sunday finery and the big beautiful Dayline Boats if they would be there at the moment was such an excitement we did not know where to run first.

There were so many paths, and so many shade-trees, and little summer houses, all so beautiful, and flower gardens, and refreshments. Kingston Point Park always meant a good time to young and old.

Middletown Fair Slates Special Old Timers Day

Old Timers—persons 75 years of age or older—will have their day again this year at the Orange County Fair in Middletown.

The big day, with free admission, free meal and an opportunity to win a number of prizes, will be Friday, Aug. 10 of the nine-day fair week.

Fred Germain Jr., general manager of the Fair, expressed that all old timers planning to attend must file an application before Aug. 3 at five p. m. Banks may be obtained by writing, telephoning or going to the Chamber of Commerce office at 10 King street, Middletown.

THE FIRST applications received this year were those of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lonsberry, 20 Broad street, Middletown, the general manager said.

In addition to free admittance to the Fair Grounds, Old Timers will attend the stadium show without charge and will be given one free meal—either lunch or supper. The special guests will have a choice of eating at the Orange County Fair Restaurant or the Otisville Grange Restaurant.

The general manager said the Fair directors would welcome names and addresses of any other homes or organizations for the aged that might be able to assist in the project.

The date of Old Timers Days also coincides with the second of two Children's Days when youngsters under 14 years of age will be admitted without tickets. The first Children's Day is Monday, Aug. 6.

The Pepsicola Company will present a special award of a child's automobile each day. Tuesday's gift will be a Kiddie Corvette, and Friday's, an electric propelled Thunderbird.

Says Car Safety Needed

Washington, July 17 (AP)—Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) said Monday Congress may have to establish by law safety standards for automobile design and require manufacturers to comply with them. Douglas told a House Commerce subcommittee he "most emphatically" feels the present tendency is toward too much emphasis on speed, power and beauty in automobiles rather than safety. The subcommittee is engaged in a general study of highway problems. A big difficulty, said Douglas, is that no one automobile manufacturer can afford to alter the characteristics of his product drastically in the interest and safety all at once, because it might lose sales to its rivals. And he said piecemeal improvements will not do the job.

More Scholarships For Training Blind

The American Foundation for the Blind announced today that it is increasing the amount of its scholarships to advanced blind students by 40 per cent over last year.

"This enables us to help blind students who are working for undergraduate and advanced degrees just that much more," said M. Robert Barnett, Executive Director of the Foundation.

The total grant for the academic year 1956-57 is $10,000.

Twenty awards have gone to blind students who are studying side by side with sighted students in such varied fields as social work, law, elementary and college teaching, psychology, social work, clinical psychology, rehabilitation counseling and social casework, according to Mr. Barnett.

To date, the Foundation has awarded 528 scholarships, totaling $130,000 to 253 different blind students. The granting of these scholarships is now entering its 33rd year.

A burglar was one night engaged in stowing a good haul of plunder in his bag when he was startled by a touch on the shoulder, and, turning his head, he beheld a venerable, mild-eyed clergyman gazing sadly at him.

"Oh, my brother," groaned the reverend gentleman, "wouldst thou rob me? Turn, I beseech thee—from thy evil ways. Return those stolen goods and depart in peace, for I am merciful and forgive. Begone!"

And the burglar, only too thankful at not being given into custody of the police, obeyed and slunk swiftly off.

Then the good old man carefully and quietly packed the plunder into another bag and walked softly (so as not to disturb the slumber of the inmates) out of the house and away into the silent night.

Troop 6 Baptist Scouts Win Twice At Summer Camp

Troop 6 of the First Baptist Church won two competitions and tied for a third during the second week of the Rip Van Winkle Boy Scout camp at East Jewett, it was announced today.

The troop, under the leadership of Henry P. Eighmey, who served as camp scoutmaster for the week, took first in the "Adventure Trail," first in the "Aqua Maneuvers" and tied for first with Troop 22, sponsored by the Kerhonkson VFW, in daily inspection.

NINE PATROLS of eight Scouts each participated in the "Adventure Trail," an event consisting of skill demonstrations in first aid, knife and axmanship, knot tying, fire building, signaling, compass work and orienteering. The event was won by the Bald Eagle Patrol of Troop 6.

In the waterfront carnival, known as "Aqua Maneuvers," all classes of swimmers and non-swimmers participated in various swimming, boating, canoeing and life saving events. Waterfront Director Richard C. Gendreau, Jr., was in charge. Troop 6 was first with Troop 22 running a close second.

The following advancement ceremony was held at the traditional ceremonial campfire closing the week: Second class—Scott Meyer, Troop 53, Tannersville; Ronald Lifshin and Louis Krosner, Troop 5; Douglas Eighmey, Troop 6; John Barnum and Robert Barnum, Troop 22. First class—James Connelly and Terry Weigert, Troop 6, and William Dunn, Troop 22. Life Scout—Robert Barnett, Troop 5.

The following merit badges were earned: Swimming—Steve Kirchner, Richard Marcus, Richard Fertel and Richard Winston, Troop 5; Richard Spada, Troop 22; Rowing—Frank Rittie, Troop 6; Hiking—Roy Stock, Post 78, New Paltz, and Phillips Eighmey, Troop 6; Woodcarving—David O'Neil and Joseph Colao, Troop 6; Oscar Kaelin, Troop 74, New Paltz, and Dewitt Stanton, Troop 22.

First aid—Peter LeBoeuf, Troop 22; Forestry—Richard Showers, Robert Bogart, Joseph Colao and William Bodenweber, Troop 6; Robert Barnett, Troop 5; Robert Saxe, Charles Russell and Daniel Davidson, Troop 66; Andrew Angstrom, Troop 3, Kingston, and Fred Sherman, Troop 22; Pioneering—Daniel Davidson, Wallace Hereth and David Patterson, Troop 66, and Robert Barnett, Troop 5; Cooking—Oscar Kaelin, Troop 74, David Reilly, Troop 82, Esopus; Berton Decker and Bryan Joyce, Troop 22; William Harbig, Troop 10.

B'nai B'rith Again Awards Campership

Kingston Lodge of B'nai B'rith for the second year has awarded a two-week campership to a Scout of Troop 5 which it sponsors. The annual campership is awarded to the Boy Scout or Explorer in the troop most representative of the scouting ideals.

This year the presentation was made to Richard Marcus of Kingston who for the past year has served the troop as senior patrol leader. His outstanding service to other boys in his troop and the exemplary boy leadership were cited as meriting this singular honor.

He is currently attending the local Boy Scout Camp—Camp Tri-Mount—near East Jewett with his troop.

sponsored by Ulster Hose Company, and Garvin Russell, Troop 66, qualified for the Paul Bunyan award for proficiency and knowledge of axmanship.

THREE SCOUTERS and eight Scouts and Explorers were inducted into the national honor society—Order of the Arrow—during the week: Edward Friedman, Sr., Explorer advisor of Post 22, Kerhonkson; Elmore Yallum, Troop 5 Scoutmaster; Harry Robinson, Post 22 committeeman and Cubmaster of Pack 22, Kerhonkson, and the following Scouts and Explorers: Vincent A. Korzatkowski, Explorer Ship 45, Coxsackie; Jeffrey Slee, Troop 41, Catskill; John Kelly, Troop 10; Myron Dembo, Troop 22; Richard Showers, Troop 6; Robert Bogart, Troop 6; and Roger H. Anderson, Post 22, Kerhonkson.

The third week of the camp season opened Sunday with 83 campers checking in at East Jewett. Three troops will be in camp with their own leadership—Troop 5 for the second week with Mr. Yallum, Troop 11, sponsored by St. James Methodist Church, Kingston, with Robert Tremper, and Troop 12, sponsored by the First Dutch Church, Kingston.

Twenty-eight Scouts and Explorers from other troops in the council have been formed into a provisional troop staffed by the camp leadership for the week.

Suffers Knee Injury

Marline Larios, 18, of 90 Emerson street, suffered an injury of the right knee, when the sedan of Camille Larios, of the same address, which she was driving, struck a utility pole near 131 Foxhall avenue early yesterday afternoon. Officers Myer Levy and Michael Mazzuca reported at 12:40 p. m., that the sedan, headed west on Foxhall avenue, was damaged on the front and was towed from the scene, and a section of sidewalk was damaged.

Prisoner Released

Bonn, Germany, July 17 (AP)—The British Monday released a German war criminal for killing escaped Royal Air Force prisoners. Reinhold Bruchardt, 43, was originally sentenced to death for his part in carrying out Hitler's order that 50 British officers who escaped from the prison camp Stalag Luft three should be shot on recapture. His sentence was commuted to 15 years. The German-allied review board recommended release before his sentence expired.

Says Grace Expecting

Brussels, July 17 (AP)—The Vatican correspondent of the Catholic press agency CIP says Grace Kelly is expecting a baby. The CIP dispatch attributed the news to the Rev. Francis Tucker, Roman Catholic chaplain to Grace's husband, Prince Rainier of Monaco. The CIP correspondent said Father Tucker was interviewed during a recent visit he made to The Vatican to present a collection of Monacan stamps to Pope Pius XII. Asked if an announcement would be made soon that an heir to the Monacan throne was on the way, the American priest reportedly replied: "I see no reason to deny information which will anyway be made official soon."

No Report on Squirrels

An Albany report to determine whether two squirrels sent there earlier this month were rabid, is not expected here for more than two weeks, it was learned today. Dr. Gilbert F. Hoppstedt, county public health veterinarian, ordered the animals sent to Albany for the rabies test, after reports that they had bitten or attempted to bite children in the Elmendorf street area. The animals were in such condition, when they arrived in Albany that the longer test is required, a spokesman for the local health department said today.

C of C Meeting Will Outline Sales Days Plans

Saugerties, July 17—Saugerties Sales Days will be discussed at the regular monthly meeting of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce to be held Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. in Schoentag's Colonial Tavern, Route 32 near the Thruway interchange.

All Saugerties merchants whether Chamber members or not are invited to attend the planning session. This will not be a supper meeting.

Also on the agenda will be reports on plans for the proposed brochure on the Saugerties area; the membership campaign; Christmas lighting fund raising campaign and a discussion on the Appreciation Day program.

Equalization Rate For Pine Hill 25

Pine Hill received an equalization rate of 25, the same as last year according to a listing of rates established for 48 more villages by the State Board of Equalization and Assessment.

The announcement confirmed tentative rates listed for these villages on June 17. The board's action following a hearing at which the villages involved offered no objections to their rates.

In Greene county, the village of Catskill received a rate of 100 and Hunter a rate of 41. Both are the same as last year.

Sentencing Aug. 6

Oakland, Calif., July 17 (AP)—Two airmen involved in a "pink Cadillac" hold-up attempt will be sentenced Aug. 6. Judge Donald K. Quayle set the date yesterday. Edward J. Curran, 26, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., and Kenneth Riley, 19, of Menlo Park, Calif., have pleaded guilty to charges stemming from their attempt to rob Charles Rose, an investment broker. Curran pleaded guilty to kidnapping, burglary and robbery. Riley to burglary and robbery. The pair said they selected the Rose family because they figured a pink Cadillac convertible in the broker's driveway indicated wealth.

British Authority on Etiquette Claims U. S. Debutantes Ill-mannered, Awkward

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Most American girls do not know how to walk, dance or sit down, says Eveline McCullagh, authority on court etiquette. She's co-producer of the National Baby and Children's Show, next large scale spectacle to move into New York's Coliseum Aug. 4 to 12.

Miss McCullagh's business, among other things, is to train debutantes for presentation at court. She says:

"It's appalling how ignorant American girls are about the rudiments of carriage and deportment. They slump. They giggle. They speak a strange patois of their own. They comb their hair in public. Most of them do not even know how to make a proper curtsy, for goodness sake!"

This decorative lady, who is given to large picture hats and flashing jewelry, was born in England of Irish parentage. She studied as a concert pianist in her childhood and took up the teaching of ballroom dancing and court etiquette when the family fortunes wavered. During World War 2 she exhibited replicas of the crown jewels of England during lecture tours in the United States. She was accompanied by her father, who had brought the collection to this country for the New York World's Fair. Says Eveline:

"I will never forget one time when I came back to London after a tour of the continent and was met by my mother, who announced casually, 'I have just bought the crown jewels!'" She explained that replicas of the jewels are used for coronation rehearsals in Britain, while the originals are safely locked up in the tower of London. The set owned by the McCullaghs fill 10 packing cases and is exact reproduction of the real jewels, down to the last facet.

Between tours of the United States, Miss McCullagh teaches the finer points of ballroom dancing to assorted royalty and financial moguls in the 60-room family home in England, which includes a 100-foot ballroom. Among her pupils have been such notables as: The Duke of Kent, King Alfonso of Spain, King Farouk, the King of Siam, the Maharajah and Maharani of Patiala, India, various princes and princesses and some of the better known American movie stars, such as Bob Hope, Van

Jacquelyn Duffy, Thomas Hines Jr. Wed: Couple Will Make Future Home in Kingston

Miss Jacquelyn Ruth Duffy, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Nielsen of Ulster Park and John Duffy of Eddyville, became the bride of Thomas Martin Hines Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Hines Sr., of 168 Wrentham street, Saturday, July 7 at 10 a. m. before a nuptial Mass at St. Peter's Church. The Rev. William Reynolds officiated.

Miss Nan Goldrick was at the organ and Richard Scherer sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Thy Feet Is Kneeling."

Palms and white gladioli decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Thomas Koskie. She wore a gown of rose point lace and posed over a slip of bridal satin, styled with a sequin sprinkled bodice, long tapered sleeves, an illusion yoke with tiny collar. Her bouffant floor length skirt, paneled in lace and nylon tulle, terminated in a chapel length train. A sequin embroidered bridal cap, plateau style, secured her fingertip French illusion veil.

The bride carried a prayer book and white orchids. Miss Sheila Duffy, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of nylon net in aqua, styled with a molded bodice and bouffant tulle length skirt. A matching jacket and cloche type headpiece trimmed with lilies of the valley and circular tulle veil completed the outfit.

Miss Duffy carried a colonial bouquet of yellow pompons. Bridesmaids included Miss Carol Amato, 35 Andrew street, Miss Rose Simmons, 22 Broadway and Miss Eileen Matthews of 201 East Union street. Their gowns were identical in styling to that of the honor attendant except in colors of blue, Nile green and orchid. They carried similar bouquets.

Miss Terry Ann Jacobs, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl in a gown of white velvety fashioned with a fitted bodice, tiny puffed sleeves and a small collar. Her bouffant skirt was posed over hoops and she wore a sweetheart bodice.

Russell Jacobs of Colonial Gardens, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers included Fred Harder Jr., cousin of the bridegroom, Donald McKenna of Cold Springs and Donald Wolff of Hudson street.

Warren Kelder, cousin of the bride, was the child ringbearer. Following a reception at the Alpine for approximately 125 guests, the couple left for a wedding trip to Canada. The bride chose as a traveling ensemble a light blue dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Miss Duffy is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by IBM in Kingston. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Kingston High School, is employed as an electronics technician at IBM in Poughkeepsie. He served two years with the U. S. Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines will make their home at 11 Cottage Row.

"DEAR" NOT FOR BUSINESS

A wife tells me: "My husband and I own and operate a small store. Very often my husband will have to ask me a question about something and he always calls me 'dear'—even in front of customers. I have tried to tell him that this is in bad taste in business but he persists in doing it. Perhaps if I can show him something from you about its being bad taste, he will stop doing it."

Terms of endearment are not in best taste in the business world. Before personal friends, and customers you know very well, it would be permissible. But even so it is best to avoid use of endearing terms.

Smoking Without Permission

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening my husband and I had guests in to dinner. After dinner several of them took out cigarettes and started to smoke without asking our permission. I thought this was very rude on their part as my husband and I do not smoke. Shouldn't one ask permission before smoking?

Answer: It would be very nice if they would, but it is not necessary because smoking has become too universal.

Ring of the Divorce

Dear Mrs. Post: In the case of a divorce, will you please tell me what is the proper thing for a divorcee to do with her wedding ring? Should it be changed to the right hand, worn as it is, or discarded altogether? I am particularly interested in cases where children are involved.

Answer: It is entirely proper that she continue to wear her ring as she always has, especially if she has children. If she wishes to show that she is no longer married she may change the ring to the right hand. If she particularly dislikes that wedding ring, she can buy another to replace it.

What linens are for the hope chest? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, a list of linens and trousseau clothes are included in leaflet E-5, "The Bride's Trousseau." To obtain a copy send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Real Estate Men Say Snyder Not Member of Assn.

A man charged with illegal subdivision of lands in a home development area of the Town of Ulster is not a member of the Ulster County Real Estate Board, a spokesman for the organization said today.

Harry Snyder, president of Hastansa Realty Corp., and supervisor (R) of the Town of Marletown, will be given a preliminary hearing at 4 p. m. in the court of Justice Harold E. Macholdt for allegedly creating a new street in the Lucas avenue extension sector without approval of the town board or Ulster planning board.

"Mr. Snyder is not a member of the Ulster County Real Estate Board," the spokesman for the organization told The Freeman today, taking exception to a story about the subdivision case Monday calling him a "realtor."

The Ulster County Real Estate Board, composed of more than 45 members, is affiliated with the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards and the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

"We have a code of ethics which we live up to," the spokesman said, "and it is the duty of a realtor to take a civic interest in his community, and to abide by all regulations of cities and towns in subdivision programs."

A great majority of the local members have been in the real estate field for more than 30 years.

The term "realtor" is reserved by the association for its members, the spokesman said, although many business firms handling housing add it to the names of their business, without the blessing of the association.

Mr. Snyder was arraigned on the illegal subdivision charge last Friday, on a warrant executed by state police.

Action was started, according to papers filed in the case, when complaints were made to town officials relative to construction of roads and road improvements.

Information is based on a certified copy of a deed in which Mr. Snyder conveyed a parcel of land to Joseph Crespi, Prince street, this city.

Joseph Lamphere, a constable of the Town of Ulster, signed the information.

It is alleged that Mr. Snyder wrongfully and illegally subdivided lands in the Lucas avenue extension area to create Dirk Lane, all without approval of the town board or the planning board.

It is also alleged roads in the development were never turned over to the township, pursuant to law.

At the arraignment Mr. Snyder was released in the custody of his attorney, Arthur B. Ewig.

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

A mother signing herself Worried writes: "My nine-year-old boy is a reading problem. To enter the fourth grade this fall, he has to go to remedial school this summer. He doesn't want to. He says he'd rather repeat the third grade. Should I allow this? His teacher says that as he has this reading block, he may need special psychological help."

I'll leave the "reading block" to the psychologist whose language it is.

In the meantime, let me ask her these questions: Does she enjoy reading herself? Do books come and go in her house constantly? Do her children love her to tell them stories and read from their books to them?

If her answer is "No" to these questions, her son's disinterest in reading may reflect her own negative feeling for it.

Today, it's the thing to blame schools' new sight-reading method for our shocking increase in children's reading disability. Though I prefer the phonetic method myself, I think the new method has little to do with the problem.

Gordon Dupree of the Great Books Foundation expresses my view exactly in the Saturday Review of Literature: "Ours is a society which does not honor reading. We turn our own deprecation of it to indignation and blame the school. If Johnny's parents don't read, why should he submit to the rigors of acquiring that discipline? When his parents read, he will too."

In America today, only 17 per cent of our adult population can be found reading a book at any given time as against 55 per cent of England's population. Comments Dupree: "To presume that public education will conspire with Johnny to reverse the American trend to illiteracy is nonsense. We are asking the next generation to exhibit a virtue of mind which we ourselves have debased through indifference."

A parent who loves books transfers his feeling to his child spontaneously. Because he experiences his own reading skill as a source of joy, he never presses the child to develop his as a piece of educational equipment. He just happily shares his own skill with the child.

And so the magical thing takes place. He creates the passion to read in the child—that fertile situation in which the eager youngster grabs at any teaching method you offer to unlock for himself the treasures glimpsed through his parent's reading skill.

He can't wait to read for himself any more than he can wait for you to reach down the jam pot for him.

So Mrs. Worried's real problem, instead of involving school grades, promotions and demotions may be her own disinterest in books. In which case, not a psychologist, is the person to solve it.

Hawaii Wedding For Marilyn Winnie

At the Naval Chapel located on the United States Submarine Base in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Miss Marilyn Winnie became the bride of Robert S. Pearson.

Miss Winnie is the daughter of Mrs. John Parslow. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pearson of Flatbush.

The bride, who graduated from Saugerties High School, was employed by IBM in Kingston.

After receiving his discharge from the service on August 27, the bridegroom will enroll at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will make their future home in Troy.

Red Romance Gone

New York, July 17 (AP)—American construction executives returning from Russia Monday said that two things lacking in the Soviet Union are skilled workers and a feeling of romance. The comment came from four members of the National Assn. of Home Builders who visited Russia. Others of the original 18-man delegation return later. "All the romance seems to be gone," reported Carl Mitten of Merchantville, N. J. "Their happiness is a mechanical happiness." He said the employment of many women in field jobs and at heavy labor is detrimental to romance, and noted that the national birth rate is down.

Margaret Hinsdale Wed in Double Ring Ceremony at Woodstock Reformed Church

The Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church formed the background for the wedding of Margaret Louise Hinsdale, daughter of Mrs. Egbert Hinsdale, 66 Stephan street, to Thomas Harmon Christiana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Christiana of Woodstock Saturday, 2:30 p. m. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd, pastor.

Thomas Brown was at the organ. Selections played included "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Pink and white gladioli and green palms decorated the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William W. Hinsdale. She wore a white embroidered Swiss organdy gown over plush pink taffeta with shirred sleeves, portrait neckline and bouffant waltz length skirt with scalloped hemline. Miss Hinsdale carried a pink and white nosegay of roses with showers of baby's breath.

Miss Doris Parslow of 28 Flatbush avenue, was the maid of honor. She wore a blue ballet organdy gown fashioned with short sleeves, sweetheart neckline, waltz length skirt and carried a nosegay of pastel flowers.

Best man for his brother was Richard Christiana. Ushers included Ronald Hooper and Clyde Christiana.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at Deane's Restaurant, Woodstock, for approximately 90 guests and then the young couple, who will make their future home in San Jose, Calif., left for a wedding trip to Canada.

Ed Kithcart Cracks Game Winning Triple

L. Kithcart Stars; Ferraro Fans 13

Jones Dairy	5	1
Watzkas	4	2
Nader Motors	4	3
Kingston Eagles	4	3
Saugerties	3	3
Dobler Beer	2	5

Ted Marable and Eddie Kithcart combined to make the Kingston Eagles forget all about that recent, horrendous first inning against Jones Dairy in the City Baseball League.

MARABLE pitched a brilliant 4-hitter to hand Nader Motors a bone-jarring, 3-0, crusher in yesterday's league presentation at the Athletic Field.

And it was Kithcart who slammed a two-run triple in the fifth and later scored on a sacrifice fly for the only scoring activity on either side. Another Kithcart—Lee—went "4 for 4" on four singles.

The Marable-Kithcart tandem inflicted a tough defeat on Jim Ferraro, the Nader right hander who permitted only six hits and struck out 13. Marable whiffed only three.

The victory tied the Eagles with Nadders for third place, with 4 wins and 3 losses each.

KITHCART's triple was the only extra base of the game. After four scoreless innings, Ferraro walked Williams and yielded a single to Lee Kithcart. On the next pitch, Eddie Kithcart unloaded his triple chaser in two runs. Kithcart later scored on Johnny Armstrong's long fly to center.

Eddie Van Loan stroked a pair of singles for Nadders.

Another big clash for first place is on tap today, with Jones Dairy meeting the Watzkas. The Dairy men (6-1) lead Watzkas by a game in the battle for first place.

Clark Mains or Bruce Bechtold will pitch for Joneses, with Johnny Acker the probable Watzka choice.

Lake Placid, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—Stanley J. Hart of Saranac Inn and John Bastian of Elizabethtown will represent the Lake Placid district in the New York state amateur golf championship at Poughkeepsie Aug. 9-12. Both shot 78s, six over par, at Craig Wood Country Club yesterday to win the berths.

Savel Sweeps At Saratoga Pro-Seniors

Big Steve Savel, professional at Western Turnpike golf course, west of Albany, swept both divisions in the annual Pro-Senior tournament yesterday at the Saratoga Springs course.

The burly pro teamed with a club member, Bill Underhill, to card a best-ball 64 to win the Pro-Senior. Savel fired a 3-under-par 69 on his own ball to capture the Pro division. He also had 65 best-ball with Paul Maguire.

Alex Gerlak of The Twaalfskill Club finished third in the Pro division with a 73 on nines of 37 and 36. Second place went to Joe Creavy with 71.

Gerlak and Francis Smith of Saratoga posted a best-ball 66. The local pro carded 68s with B. A. Culliton and James A. Dwyer.

J. Carson Hutchins, Woodstock professional, had a 79 on his own ball and posted a best-ball 70 with Allen Waterous.

Widen Lead Sox Blast RL Braves

Tigers	3	5
Braves	2	6

Red Sox boosted their Rondout Valley Little League lead over the Cubs to a full game, by routing the Braves, 11-3, yesterday.

Mike Dellay, the starting pitcher, was credited with the win. He and Frank Stella checked the losers with five hits.

The Sox collected 10 off Arnold Smith, including three singles by Frank Cerone and two each by Keith Knudsen and Nick Gantner.

Floyd Turner cracked a home run and Tommie Rowe had a double for the Braves. Six of the Sox runs were unearned.

Versatile Hobie Armstrong checked the VFW on five hits as the Kiwanis scored a 7-0 shutout victory in the Fraternal Youth League yesterday at Dietz Stadium.

Armstrong, who also plays the outfield, struck out 10 and passed three in hurling the Kiwanians to their first win after one setback. The Vets have now dropped two straight games.

ARMSTRONG WAS also one of the hitting stars, slamming a triple. Vic Locke, Frank Sammons, Joe Schrowang and Cliff

Miller weighed in with two hits each. Paul Gardner was tagged with the loss. The southpaw was belted for 11 hits, fanned four and walked three. He held the Kiwanis scoreless for three frames, but they got to him for a pair of runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth and one more in the seventh.

Dick Strong, with a double and single, paced the Vets' attack.

Commandos Defeat Bombers, 5 to 4

The Commandos eked out a 5-4 win over the Bombers in 10 innings in a battle of city baseball teams.

Tom Oulton's ground ball scored the winning after the lead had seen-sawed back and forth throughout most of the game.

Gene Spada took the win over Lou Klein. Spada struck out 14 and walked 11 while Klein fanned 15 and passed eight.

Chick Boice slammed a home run and single for the winners while teammate Don Kruszenski doubled and singled twice.

The Bombers play the Richard Allen team Friday at Hasbrouck Park.

Knorr Syndicate Buys Tigers in Top Cash Deal

Detroit, July 17 (AP)—A pair of baseball "unknowns" who parlayed a record price and promise had control today of the Detroit Tigers.

An 11-man syndicate headed by Michigan radio men Fred Knorr and John Fetzer swung the biggest money deal in baseball history yesterday in the $5,500,000 purchase of the American League sixth-place club.

ALTHOUGH THE bid was a quarter of a million dollars higher than any of the other seven submitted, the fact that the new owners promised to continue the "sincere and dignified" policies that have characterized Tiger management for more than 20 years was regarded as an influencing factor.

Those were the type of policies employed by Walter O. Briggs Sr., who died in 1952 and left the club and Briggs Stadium to his son, Walter O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., and four daughters.

Spike Briggs, president since 1952, will stay on — as was his wish — with the new organization as executive vice president in charge of operations. Knorr and Fetzer say this means Briggs will "run the club."

Insiders say that although the Knorr-Fetzer syndicate — which includes crooner Bing Crosby — will not officially take over until Oct. 1, the first action may take place next week. They say manager Bucky Harris, who has been openly criticized by Briggs, and general manager Muddy Ruel,

Alston Claims Rift With Players 'Exaggerated'

Chicago, July 17 (AP)—Brooklyn manager Walt Alston says his "little meetings" with the players at Milwaukee last week was "greatly exaggerated" and he'd like to have his side of the feud story told.

Before departing for Cincinnati yesterday, Alston, a quiet, easy-mannered man, said "it's something that has happened before, will happen again and probably happens with every major league team."

ALSTON HAS BEEN dissatisfied with the way his world champions have been fumbling around and told them so after losing a game to the league-leading Braves. Some of the players later were anonymously quoted as being dissatisfied with Alston.

"I don't deny having told them off," said Alston, "but it's all greatly exaggerated and out of proportion. As far as the team is concerned nothing has been said about it since. But the papers have been making a big thing out of it."

"We were going bad and I just wanted to try something else, so I held a little meeting," he continued. "On too many occasions our pitchers have had an 0-2 count on a batter and on the next pitch the ball goes sailing out of the park."

"THAT'S NOT GOOD baseball, but I don't go around raising a lot of hell. They can make mistakes just like I can make mistakes. And when an 0-2 pitch goes over the fence, a major league pitcher should know he's made a mistake, I don't have to tell him," Alston added.

Alston knows he has problems with Brooklyn in third place, five games out of first, but he still has confidence the Dodgers will repeat as champions.

"We're not playing good ball and we're crippled up with (Randy) Jackson and Jackie Robinson injured. But still this club can play better and hit better," he said.

THE NEW OWNERS refused to comment on the move. They said there would be a meeting next week of the new board of directors "to discuss several things."

Four trustees who control the estate of the late Briggs are certain to approve of the new owners and baseball commissioner Ford Frick announced immediately after the decision by the Tigers' board of directors that all members of the syndicate "are perfectly acceptable."

Other members of the syndicate are Kenyon Brown of New York and Hollywood, R. F. Woolworth of New York, George L. Coleman of Miami, Okla., Joseph A. Thomas of New York, Harvey R. Hansen and William H. McCoy of Detroit, Paula O'Bryan of Washington and Carl Lee of Kalamazoo, Mich.

KNORR IS PRESIDENT of the Knorr Broadcasting Co. and Fetzer heads the broadcasting company that bears his name. Their group beat down a spirited bid by Bill Veeck, who had owned the St. Louis Browns and the Cleveland Indians and wanted the Tigers "more than anything else in the world." Veeck's combine offered $5,250,000.

The new owners will pay out a million dollars by Aug. 1 and another 3,600,000 by Oct. 1. The remaining $900,000 will be paid over a five year period.

Local Stars Play Friday At Dutchess

Ulster county champion, George Hughes of The Twaalfskill Club, is one of three 1-handicap golfers seeking qualifying berths in the New York State Amateur, Friday, July 20, at the Dutchess Golf and Country Club of Poughkeepsie.

Alvin Boice of Twaalfskill will compete with a 2-handicap and Harvey Bostic and club champion, Ronnie Marks of the Wiltwyck Country Club, will compete with 8 handicaps.

Other 1-handicappers besides Hughes are Ed Vaughan, Winged Foot of Mamaroneck, and Jim Galgano, Sparkill.

RAY BILLOWS, of the home club, a seven-time winner of the event, is the only scratch player in the Poughkeepsie sectionals. Ninety golfers will compete.

The Dutchess test is one of 12 to be conducted in the state to determine the 64 golfers who will gain places in the state tournament to be played Aug. 9-12 at the Dutchess course.

Poughkeepsie golf clubs will be heavily represented in the qualifying play. College Hill and Dutchess will have 22 entries each. There are 11 entries from the IBM Country club and 10 from Southern Dutchess Golf Club at Beacon.

BOICE is also in a select group in the 2-handicap field. Others include Harry Ostrander of IBM; Joe Vallo of Southern Dutchess, Harry S. Spears of Port Jervis and Ralph Yando of College Hill.

Henry J. (Hank) Kowal, the great Dutchess amateur, will play with a three handicap.

Bill Bogle, a 3-handicap player at Dutchess, is chairman of the state tournament and will be in charge of the Poughkeepsie sectionals.

Bogle said today that entrants may shoot a practice round on Thursday, July 19.

There is no undefeated team in the second half of play in the Town of Ulster Little League today. The Ulster Kiwanis Club Yanks saw to that last night when they tripped D-D's Drive.

In Giants, 5-1, to tighten up the race.

John Wojcio pitched a strong 3-hitter in handing the Jints their first loss after two wins. He was robbed of a shutout in the last inning.

The Yanks managed only four hits but bunched them in two innings to score all their runs.

John Hetsco was tagged for all the tallies before giving way to Dwain Caunitz in the fourth.

Hetsco and Garry Bassett collected the only doubles of the game.

Wojcio struck out 10 and walked five. Caunitz fanned eight, and Hetsco two.

The Hildebrand Dry Dock Co.

Pirates continue to play in bad luck. After battling back from behind to tie, the Bucs kicked away a 5-2 extra inning decision to the Canfield Electric Braves yesterday in a National Little League at Kingman Park.

The loss dropped the Bucs back into the basement and advanced the Redmen into third position in the second half of play.

Two costly errors between a hit, walk and sacrifice got the Braves runs over in the top of the seventh after the Pirates knotted the count with two markers in the fifth.

Joe Mikish got charged with the loss after taking over from starter Horace Walker. Duane

Baxter was the winner after replacing Bob Jaenisch.

Jaenisch tripled and Jack

Lewis doubled for the only two extra base hits. Tony Spada was the lone player getting two hits.

Walker struck out 10 and Jaenisch six.

Field at Saratoga

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 17 (AP)—Ten Hambletonian eligibles are among the 13 three-year-old trotters named to start tomorrow night in the $10,000 Runnymede Trot at Saratoga Raceway.

Heading the field, named yesterday, is Saboteur, two-year-old and dash winner last year.

The trot will be part of Grand Circuit week, which got underway last night. It continues to night with the $10,000 Bostwick two-year-old trot in which 12 horses have been entered. Hickory Smoke and Hoot Song head the field.

In last night's opening program, Provincetown, Shelburne and Barbie took sections of the $3,600 Amsterdam Trot. They paid win prices of $9.50, $14.40 and $14.20 respectively.

Jessie Nibble and Kernel Bean were the victors in the two sections of the $2,700 Art Hinrichs Memorial Trot, paying $5.40 and $23.20 to win.

Other Hambletonian entries in tomorrow's Runnymede are Darn Gay, Valiant Rodney, Newport Del, Magnus Hanover, Blythe Hanover, Torrence Hanover, Grand Note, Demon Always and Dial Tone.

Completing the entries are Charlotte Frost, Dudley Song, and Niagara Way.

More than 196,000 trucks are used in the distribution of milk in the United States.

Dingeldey Again Heads Board at Chambers School

Edward F. Dingeldey was re-elected president of the board of education of the Chambers School, Town of Ulster, at the organization meeting of the board last evening. John Vine was elected vice-president and Reginald Russell, principal of the school, is clerk. Mrs. Rose T. Peters was named collector and Mrs. Joseph Woodvine, treasurer. William O'Kelly is census enumerator.

The board voted to re-advertise for bids for drapery and paving work and also to advertise for bids for office furniture.

Newcombe Oil Company was awarded the contract to supply fuel for the heating season of 1956-57, that company being low bidder at .0984 cents per gallon.

The matter of transportation was discussed and bids for transportation will be sought in the near future.

Architect Albert Milliken was present at the board meeting and reported on progress of the new school building, stating that work was progressing according to schedule and the building would be ready for full occupancy.

Would Return Money

Washington, July 1 (P)—The man who put up $2,500 of his own funds to help the government award a gold medal to Dr. Jonas Salk, discoverer of the antipolio vaccine, would get his money back under a bill the Senate passed Monday. The measure now goes to the White House. Saul Lehman, head of a New York printing firm, advanced the $2,500 to pay for the medal after learning that Congress had adjourned last year without provision to finance it. The bill, by Rep. Davidson (D-N.Y.), would reimburse him in full. Sen. Lehman (D-Lib.-N.Y.) told a reporter he is not related to Saul Lehman.

Mandy, The Duck, To Jail

Media, Pa. (P)—Can you have a duck jailed for disturbing the peace? It happened to Mandy, the duck from Glen Providence Park, which wandered too far from home and quacked too loud and too long. And at night, too. A resident complained. The prowl car came and Mandy went to jail. James Stokes, the park's caretaker who sprung Mandy from the clink the next morning, said: "We've got a pond, good feed and conditions ideal for ducks. I can't understand Mandy."

Plunket Takes Job Oath

Attorney Thomas J. Plunket, (right), chairman of the Ulster County Democratic Committee, was sworn in by Secretary of State Carmine G. DeSapio in New York city on Friday as a member of the State Commission on Pensions. The oath of office was taken at the office of Secretary DeSapio.

The State Commission on Pensions consists of seven members appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The term of office is five years.

Attorney Plunket succeeds Robert McAllister Lloyd of New York, whose term expired. The term of Joseph I. Lubin of New Rochelle has also expired but no appointment has been made to that vacancy. Reinhard A. Hohaues of Bronxville is chairman of the commission and Edward F. N. Uthe of Coeymans is vice chairman.

Other members are Elliott V. Bell of New York; Paul Studenski of New York; J. Frank Wood of New York. Ex-officio are Superintendent of Banks Alfred J. Bohlinger, Albany, and State Civil Service Commissioner Oscar M. Taylor, president of the commission.

The commission is authorized to make studies and analyses of types and costs of public employee pension and retirement systems; methods of improving the operations and effectiveness of such systems; effects of proposed legislation and generally, the subjects of retirement, income after retirement, disability and death.

Greenfield Crash Victims Are Fair

Three persons admitted to Veterans Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning following a two-car collision on Route 52, Greenfield Park, were still in fair condition this morning.

They are Irving Kukaska, 44, and Rose Kukaska, 35, both of Brooklyn, and Robert DuPree, 34, of Ellenville. A fourth person, Ivan Kukaska, 20, of Brooklyn, has been discharged.

The injuries were suffered when a car operated by Irving Kukaska, traveling east, slowed to avoid another car and was struck in the rear by a vehicle operated by Sarah Forde, 36, of Ellenville, according to Ellenville state police. The Forde car caught fire and was completely destroyed.

Rethier Is Held For Grand Jury On Assault Count

Henri Rethier, 51, owner of Les Pommiers, a Lake Katrine hotel and restaurant, waived a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Millard Davis of the Town of Ulster, Monday night, on a charge of assault, first degree, and was held for the grand jury.

Mr. Rethier was arrested by Kingston state police June 25 following an altercation and scuffle for a gun during which it reportedly went off twice. The complainant is Ernest Gruber, 52, who operates the Oak Grove Motel, Route 9W, Lake Katrine. Troopers said the trouble apparently arose over a dispute about a sign pointing a direction to Les Pommiers. Mr. Gruber allegedly tore the sign down, claiming it was on his property. Mr. Rethier reportedly went to Mr. Gruber's motel carrying a semi-automatic rifle.

Mr. Rethier is represented by Attorney Sherwood Davis. Attorney Francis Tucker appeared for the district attorney.

Ravenous Rogues

Freeport, Minn. (P)—Thieves with either an unlimited appetite or fancy picnic plans broke into a supermarket here and took 130 pounds of minced ham, a case of chopped ham and 40 pounds of sausage. Possibly thinking of dessert they grabbed $60 from the cash register.
